1 HOUSTON, TEXAS; MONDAY, JULY 7, 2014; 2:00 P.M.

2 THE COURT: All right. Let me call Case Number
3 13-37200, Goldking Holdings, LLC.

4 Let's start with appearances, please.

5 MR. HUGHES: Good afternoon, Your Honor.
6 Patrick Hughes, here with my partner, Don Jackson, on one of 7 the matters that --

8 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon.

9 MR. MUHAMMAD: And Arsalan Muhammad, as well.

10 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

11 MR. HIGGINS: John Higgins, on behalf of Wayzata,
12 Your Honor.

13 MR. CRAIG: And this is Frank Craig --

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

15 MR. CRAIG: -- and Carroll Devillier in Baton
16 Rouge, with Breazeale Sachse and Wilson, representing DPH
17 Oil and Gas, LLC, et al.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Craig, when I'm ready
19 to take appearances over the telephone, I'll let you know,
20 all right?

21 MR. CRAIG: Oh, I'm sorry, sir. I'm sorry.

22 THE COURT: All right. Any other appearances in 23 the courtroom?

24 MR. REASONER: Yes, Your Honor. Barrett Reasoner,
25 and my partner, Laura Kissel, here on behalf of Goldking

1 Onshore --

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 MR. REASONER: -- and Goldking Holdings.

4 THE COURT: Thank you, folks.

5 MR. MCALPINE: Kiernan McAlpine, here on behalf of 6 Louis Belanger.

7 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

8 MR. RIORDAN: Michael Riordan, on behalf of 9 Goldking Energy Partners I.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Riordan.
11 All right. In addition to Mr. Craig, any other
12 party on the telephone wish to make an appearance?

13 MR. VINKEY: Yes. Matt Vinkey, on behalf of 14 Eddie Hebert.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Vinkey.
16 Anyone else?

17 MR. FRYAR: This is Eric Fryar and Avniel Adler,
18 on behalf of all the Tallerine Parties.

19 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Fryar. I didn't get 20 the second name.

21 MR. FRYAR: Avniel Adler.

22 MR. ADLER: Avniel Adler.

23 THE COURT: Adler. All right. Thank you,
24 gentlemen. All right.

25 MR. KADDEN: Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is

1 Benjamin Kadden, for Leonard Tallerine, Jr. and Goldking LT
2 Capital Corp.

3 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Kadden.

4 All right. Anyone else?

5 (No verbal response.)

6 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hughes, how do you
7 want to proceed this afternoon?

8 MR. HUGHES: Your Honor, there's two matters that 9 are before you. One is a contested matter on a motion to 10 compel --

11 THE COURT: Right.

12 MR. HUGHES: -- dealing with the claim objection
13 proceeding, as well as three related Adversary Proceedings
14 involving turnover and claims resolution. Mr. Muhammad will 15 handle that matter with Mr. Jackson's involvement, to the 16 extent of particular documents that may be in controversy.

17 THE COURT: All right. Have we --

18 MR. HUGHES: And the second matter is the Rule 26
19 Conference, which the other Counselors are all here for and 20 we can take that up second, if that's okay with you?

21 THE COURT: That makes perfect sense to me because 22 I want to make sure -- because I have an idea and before I
23 put an idea out there, I want to make sure I understand all
24 the angles.

25 MR. HUGHES: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Muhammad?

2 MR. MUHAMMAD: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Do you want to give me an 4 overview of where you think the dispute remains? And then
5 I'll do the same for the Parties on -- or for Mr. Craig,
6 right?

7 MR. MUHAMMAD: Perfect, Your Honor. We are here
8 because we filed the Motion to Compel on July 2nd. On 9 July 1st, I believe, Mr. Craig and Mr. Devillier told us
10 that they would be amenable to producing documents. We 11 proposed an Agreed Order. Then they informed us on July 2nd
12 that they would not produce the audits and all the 13 correspondence and documents related thereto. They asserted
14 a work product privilege.

15 We do not believe that applies. We think there's 16 a case by Judge Isgur from last year that's completely on 17 point in terms of they can't assert -- you know, you can't
18 use the Audit to base the foundation of their $5-1/2 million
19 of claims and then to say, "No, it's work product." And 20 that's where we have our disagreement.

21 THE COURT: So have we worked out the deposition
22 issue?

23 MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, I believe so. I
24 believe that Mr. David Hebert is amenable to being deposed
25 at his Counsel's office on July 31st.

1 THE COURT: All right. And so you think that the
2 only remaining issue is simply the production of the Audits.

3 MR. MUHAMMAD: The Audit and all the
4 correspondence and documents related thereto.

5 THE COURT: Do you see them as being tied
6 together? Because it's really hard to argue that third-
7 party correspondence and some of the underlying documents --
8 and I don't know whether we're talking about an inch folder
9 or a box --

10 MR. MUHAMMAD: Right.

11 THE COURT: -- full of documents, but it's hard to 12 argue that those documents are work product.

13 So do you see there being two different disputes
14 or just one?

15 MR. MUHAMMAD: We believe we're entitled to all
16 the documents and we don't believe they're work product. To 17 the extent that work product applies, we think it's waived
18 by their assertion of the Audit repeatedly both in the 19 Affidavit that was attached to each of the Amended Proofs of 20 Claim that total up to $5-1/2 million or so and, also, in 21 their -- their Initial Disclosures included a paragraph
22 under the title "Documents," which may be used to support
23 the Claimant's claims, and they included the notes and work
24 papers of RPS, Knowledge Reservoir and all documents related
25 to the Audit.

1 THE COURT: All right. And so let me -- if you
2 don't get the Audit and the work papers, what are you going
3 to depose Mr. Hebert about?

4 MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, I think we are limited
5 in what we can depose him on. I think he still filed an
6 affidavit, but that whole Declaration -- but that
7 Declaration explicitly states that the damages set forth
8 herein are based on the preliminary results of the Audit.

9 THE COURT: All right. I think I understand.
10 Mr. Craig?

11 MR. CRAIG: (No verbal response.)

12 THE COURT: Mr. Craig?

13 MR. CRAIG: I'm sorry, I pushed the mic button.

14 THE COURT: No, that's all right.

15 MR. CRAIG: I forgot to push it back on. As you
16 have heard numerous times and from us, the Audit was never 17 complete because they never prepared -- produced all the 18 documents necessary.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. CRAIG: The Audit is -- was being conducted by 21 people hired by me in anticipation of filing suit against 22 Goldking in either State or Federal Court in Louisiana upon
23 completion of the Audit because of their failure to comply
24 with the Joint Operating Agreement that governs their 25 operations at this particular well.

1 THE COURT: All right. So your --

2 MR. CRAIG: And our responsibilities and on which
3 they are claiming that we owe them money.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 MR. CRAIG: When we -- and, in fact, it's my
6 understanding that Mr. Ersalon (phonetic) has told
7 Mr. Devillier that he is not even going to produce the 8 documents that we've been trying -- all the documents that 9 we've been trying to get, much -- which is the -- and so
10 we're going to be back here with a motion to compel.

11 Once we get all these documents, RPS is an expert
12 for us, but they are hired in anticipation of litigation and 13 all those Reports are drafts. And under Rule 26(4)(b), 14 drafts of any report or disclosures are protected and 15 prevented -- prohibited. And similarly, they have been 16 employed so far only for trial preparation.

17 And under (4)(d), they can only obtain discovery
18 with regard to their information on a showing of exceptional
19 circumstances under which it is impractical for the party to 20 obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.

21 And the -- all we have gotten from these guys is 22 "This is the documents we have obtained and these are the 23 ones we have not." We can't -- they haven't formed a final
24 opinion because Goldking hasn't produced the documents that 25 we have requested, particularly -- we don't have some

1 correspondence. In other words, the JOA requires them to
2 notify us in certain situations. We don't have those 3 documents, not because we don't have them and because we
4 lost it, but because we don't believe we ever got them. But 5 we want to see if Goldking is even going to make a showing
6 that they sent these documents out.

7 So under -- and our argument is not work product.
8 It's trial preparation of experts under Rule 26. Those 9 documents are simply not discoverable at this time absent a
10 showing that it's -- exceptional circumstances or 11 impractical for them to obtain the information otherwise.
12 All of these are documents that are under their control and 13 certainly they can obtain an opinion as to whether or not 14 their documents and what they sent to us complies with the 15 JOA.

16 In addition, Judge, one of the things that we have
17 been looking for are cancelled checks. The cancelled checks
18 are very important to show that they, in fact, paid these 19 invoices that they are claiming are due. This case is about 20 invoices that are -- not our case, but the entire bankruptcy
21 and to some degree, my understanding, deals with invoices
22 that are billed but were never paid or for excessive
23 amounts. And that is part of our claim as to whether or not
24 these invoices were, in fact, paid. That's why we've asked
25 for the cancelled checks. That's why we've asked for the

1 correspondence. So -- and that's what our RPS was trying to 2 obtain from -- for us.

3 But right now, we don't have a final report, we 4 don't have an audit. We have some preliminary notes from 5 them, but those are protected under Rule 26.

6 THE COURT: What about the underlying documents?

7 MR. CRAIG: The documents that we got from them?

8 THE COURT: I don't know what it is you have.

9 MR. CRAIG: I'm sorry, Judge, that's the only
10 underlying documents. It's the documents that we got from 11 them or my correspondence to them.

12 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

13 MR. CRAIG: That's it.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Muhammad?

15 MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, a couple of things.

16 MR. CRAIG: And, you know, it's not like there's 17 anything -- RPS' job -- they were hired to go to Goldking
18 and collect documents and provide us with a report on what 19 they found, and they were never able to complete it because 20 this bankruptcy was filed while they were in the process of 21 trying to get some documents -- final group of documents
22 from Goldking.

23 THE COURT: All right. Let me ask you this,
24 Mr. Craig:

25 If -- I get the argument that you don't have a

1 final report, shouldn't have to produce drafts, I get that.
2 But you have, at least in my mind, affirmatively used RPS to
3 put forth a basis for taking some action and --

4 MR. CRAIG: We had to. We had no other
5 information.

6 THE COURT: All right. And don't you think that 7 the basis of that opinion is discoverable having put it in 8 an affidavit?

9 MR. CRAIG: It would be -- it could be, but I
10 don't think so in this case because it is based strictly
11 upon draft reports. We had no other option in this case
12 than to produce those kind of affidavits to tell why we 13 thought what the value of our claim was. But, you know --
14 and other than referring to the initial documentation that 15 we got and which we're happy to give back to them, we're 16 very happy to give back to them everything that they got 17 from us and, you know, the -- but it is all work product how 18 you got there.

19 The underlying work that gets you to that opinion,
20 I believe, is -- remains protected even though you say,
21 "This is how we -- this is what we based our claim on." But 22 if you read those documents, they all say this was 23 incomplete, we don't have any -- we didn't get it final and 24 we -- you know, we're going to -- depending upon what we 25 find.

1 It may be that if we ever get all of the
2 documents, that what we would find is that they comply in
3 which case our claims go away. If we don't get them, then
4 if they don't have them, if they didn't send us the stuff
5 necessary or if their costs are exorbitant, then our claims
6 remain.

7 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Muhammad?

8 MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, they believed in the 9 drafts enough to file $5-1/2 million worth of claims.

10 And to the extent they're not complete, you know,
11 I don't know, I haven't seen it, but we believe that's 12 sufficient.

13 A couple of kind of maybe clean-up issues. One,
14 they did request documents from us substantially on June 9th
15 so we haven't even, you know, passed our response deadline
16 yet. We have repeatedly, over five or six times, emailed
17 them. Some more -- a number of times sent them voicemails.
18 We never received a call back to kind of deal with some of 19 this, and we never had it.

20 Mr. Hebert, who is the Declarant on all the 21 claims, is also, we presume, a party -- DPH Oil and Gas,
22 which is one of the Defendants -- its representative, so we 23 -- and he signed the Proof of Claim itself for, you know,
24 several tens of thousands -- hundreds of thousands of 25 dollars. So we don't think it's as simple as saying, you

1 know, he had no other option.

2 We believe we are entitled to each of the 3 Claimant's documents that lay the foundation for their
4 claims that total up to $5-1/2 million. We don't think it's
5 sufficient to just turn back whatever the Auditor copied
6 from our office.

7 THE COURT: Well, I presume that you don't want
8 documents that you already have.

9 MR. MUHAMMAD: We don't know what documents they 10 have because an auditor came in and copied them, but that's 11 not the main object of our, you know, document request.

12 THE COURT: Okay. But I want to go back to that 13 statement for a second. You actually do know what they have 14 because you gave it to them, right?

15 MR. MUHAMMAD: There's -- I think what Mr. Craig
16 is referring to -- so they came into the Debtors' offices
17 prior to filing bankruptcy --

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. MUHAMMAD: -- and copied a bunch -- they're,
20 I'm assuming, RPS copied a bunch of documents from our 21 offices and did some preliminary audit, and that's the 22 subject of the dispute.

23 In early June, as part of our initial disclosures,
24 we voluntarily produced 8500 pages of documents that 25 substantially form the backup to all the JIBs and all the

1 invoices that we believe -- that they owe us some $200,000
2 based on. So I don't know -- you know, there's two sets of
3 documents basically. Obviously, we don't want the 8500
4 pages that we just produced to them a month ago.

5 THE COURT: So --

6 MR. CRAIG: Your Honor, may I say something again?

7 THE COURT: Not quite yet.

8 So what you're telling me is you don't want the 9 8500 pages back.

10 MR. MUHAMMAD: Of course.

11 THE COURT: What you want to know is what else
12 they copied?

13 MR. MUHAMMAD: Yes.

14 THE COURT: But shouldn't you have -- if they
15 copied something that was in the Debtors' offices, I'm 16 assuming that you made available everything that you had.

17 MR. MUHAMMAD: Yes.

18 THE COURT: So you already have everything that 19 they've looked at, right?

20 MR. MUHAMMAD: We -- those documents, yes, but we 21 don't know if that's the only things they've looked at.

22 THE COURT: Well, my question was you don't want
23 anything back that you produced.

24 MR. MUHAMMAD: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. What you want to know is if

1 there are documents outside of those that you produced that
2 have been relied upon by Mr. Hebert; is that correct?

3 MR. MUHAMMAD: Yes.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Craig, is there any
5 objection to producing any documents reviewed by Mr. Hebert
6 that were not produced by the Debtors in either the 8500
7 document production or whatever it was you went into the 8 offices and copied documents?

9 MR. CRAIG: Except to the extent that it will 10 require us to produce preliminary reports by the experts or 11 communications to and from the experts with respect to --
12 from us or from the client in anticipation of litigation
13 that was -- we were planning on filing.

14 THE COURT: So has Mr. Hebert been declared a
15 testifying expert at this point?

16 MR. CRAIG: No, sir, he's just a -- David Hebert
17 is a -- he's an engineer and he invests in oil and gas
18 properties and that's simply an oil and gas investment.
19 Mr. Hebert has not been declared an expert nor have the 20 gentleman from RPS been declared an expert because he's --
21 we have not decided whether or not -- who's going to be a
22 testifying expert until we have gotten everything and had 23 RPS look at it. They may end up being a testifying expert,
24 they may not. We just don't know yet because their work
25 isn't completed. We haven't seen what the results will be.

1 And it's unfair to make us to produce preliminary stuff and
2 then a final report when --

3 THE COURT: Well --

4 MR. CRAIG: -- whoever that may be -- that may be
5 bought. We may very well hire a completely different expert
6 to testify not only on the documents found by RPS but also 7 on the processes and procedures utilized by Goldking in 8 drilling this well and the reasonableness of the costs
9 incurred.

10 THE COURT: All right. So how is it that -- if 11 Mr. Hebert is the one who signed the Proof of Claim and --

12 MR. CRAIG: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: -- with the representation that is 14 made on the Proof of Claim Form, is Mr. Hebert going to be 15 able to testify without making any reference to any opinion
16 that he has given?

17 MR. CRAIG: Your Honor, the Proof of Claim Form I
18 don't think requires an expert.

19 THE COURT: I agree --

20 MR. CRAIG: But the --

21 THE COURT: -- but he signed it.

22 MR. CRAIG: And during the course of this
23 proceeding because of rulings -- the pleadings that were 24 going on and disputes with Goldking, you know, in order to 25 step over some of their objections to our right to even

1 bring these claims, you asked us to provide with affidavits
2 or proof some method, some layout of how we arrived at the 3 amounts.

4 If it's not -- Mr. Hebert is certainly not an 5 expert, but he is -- you know, but he is -- if they're going
6 to -- if they want to know how he arrived at his opinions
7 for purposes of this -- not for testimony purposes, not --
8 you know, he's not going to be the one that testifies that 9 this is the damages. He's going to -- you know, he's just a
10 fact guy.

11 But if they -- they are certainly able to cross-
12 examine him at his Deposition on how he arrived at his --
13 what he set forth in the Statement and, you know, but in 14 terms of hanging the underlying draft work product -- we'll
15 give them everything RPS got, but we won't -- we don't 16 believe that the -- we believe that Rule 26 protects the 17 communications back and forth with RPS and RPS' -- well,
18 they're -- basically they say, "Well, we found these 19 documents but we need more before we can come up with a 20 conclusion."

21 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Muhammad, let me ask
22 you.

23 What you're proposing to do is you're proposing to 24 take the Deposition of David Hebert, correct?

25 MR. MUHAMMAD: Right.

1 THE COURT: In what capacity, as the person who
2 signed the Proof of Claim, as the representative of some
3 party and, if so, who?

4 MR. MUHAMMAD: As the person who signed the Proof
5 of Claim for DPH. But his Declaration is also attached to 6 each of the claims.

7 THE COURT: Right.

8 MR. MUHAMMAD: And we think that, in that
9 capacity, we can also ask him questions that apply to each
10 of the Claimants.

11 THE COURT: I agree. Here's --

12 MR. CRAIG: And there's no problem because the --
13 with all these Claimants, they all got the same amount of 14 information --

15 THE COURT: Here's --

16 MR. CRAIG: -- or lack of information.

17 THE COURT: Here's what I'm going to do: I want
18 you to start the Deposition of David Hebert.

19 And, Mr. Craig, listen loud and clear.

20 MR. CRAIG: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: If David Hebert makes any reference in 22 his answers to any report or opinion that he's prepared or 23 provided to you or whoever else, if he gives any answer in 24 my testimony that that formed the basis of his meeting his 25 responsibilities under the Code to sign the Proof of Claim,

1 then whatever it is, whether it's a letter, or a report, a
2 draft opinion or an email, that gets produced.

3 If he can testify as to how he did what he did
4 with respect to the Proof of Claim without referencing any 5 draft report, then I agree with you, it won't be produced at 6 this point.

7 MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, can I say one thing?

8 THE COURT: Sure.

9 MR. MUHAMMAD: In the Affidavit that's -- or the 10 Declaration that's attached to the claims, he explicitly 11 says that the damages set forth herein are based on the 12 preliminary results of the Audit conducted.

13 THE COURT: I got it.

14 MR. MUHAMMAD: Okay.

15 THE COURT: And that may make the questioning go
16 very difficult for Mr. Hebert. And if you need to stop and 17 seek some emergency relief because there's a dispute, I
18 understand it. But I think the right thing to do at this 19 point is: you put Mr. Hebert under oath, you start your 20 examination of how he got there. And if he can walk you
21 through the calculation without reference to his Report,
22 then I think that he can do that, then you've got your 23 Record.

24 If he tries to make reference to the Report or 25 says, "Well, I don't remember how I do it. It's set forth

1 in the Report," then the Report gets produced because, at 2 that point, it's -- I'm not going to allow him to use it
3 both as a sword and a shield. It's -- he's going to have to 4 pick. He's either going to have to go through, under oath,
5 his basis for making the representations and signing the 6 Proof of Claim Form or, if he's going to reference a
7 document, you're going to get the document, okay? Now --

8 MR. CRAIG: No problem, Your Honor. And, in fact,
9 you understand, Your Honor, if they produce all this
10 information, all of this may go away because -- this hoorah
11 over a report that was never complete because if we get
12 everything, we may very well have an expert and tell them
13 we've hired -- that this is going to be our trial expert and 14 you'll get their Report the next day.

15 THE COURT: Well, if Mr. Hebert signed the Proof
16 of Claim and Mr. Hebert's going to be designated as an 17 expert, that may create a whole different set of issues, but 18 that's not before me today.

19 MR. CRAIG: Mr. Hebert will not be designated as 20 an expert.

21 THE COURT: Let me go back to -- because I want to 22 make sure I understood it. So that's the issue with respect
23 to the Reports.

24 With the underlying documentation, is there an 25 easy way to figure out what wasn't produced in the

1 8500 pages that you could go and look at or is that just a
2 "You're going to have to go look at everything. Here are 3 12 boxes. This is everything we got"?

4 MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, I think we would like
5 to see everything because, to an extent we don't know --

6 THE COURT: Fair enough.

7 MR. MUHAMMAD: -- if the Debtors' documents are 8 full and complete so --

9 THE COURT: Mr. Craig, is that a production that's 10 fairly easy to accomplish?

11 MR. CRAIG: I'll ask Mr. Hebert. I'll have to go
12 back and look at my files, too, Your Honor, because they 13 came to me.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MR. CRAIG: And I'm just not sure -- I just don't 16 -- understand that this was last year.

17 THE COURT: Understood.

18 MR. CRAIG: A year ago.

19 THE COURT: But to the --

20 MR. CRAIG: And I don't recall the format that the 21 documents -- the underlying documents were -- if they were 22 even sent to us or if they remain with RPS.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, obviously, we would 25 like to see the documents sometime before the Deposition on

1 the 31st.

2 MR. CRAIG: Oh, certainly.

3 THE COURT: All right. So I'm going to leave that
4 issue for you all to work out. If it turns out that that's 5 going to be an issue, then don't start the Depo and come
6 back and maybe we'll do the production and the Depo here in 7 the courthouse. I don't know how else to do it.

8 But I'm going to let you all see if you can't work
9 through that because, to me, Mr. Hebert's got to know what
10 he looked at and I find it hard to believe that he doesn't
11 have his own set of everything that he thinks is important
12 sitting somewhere in his file. So I'm going to --

13 MR. CRAIG: And, Your Honor, everything in 14 Mr. Hebert's files except for the communications from RPS
15 are going to be produced that are relevant and -- oh, and 16 communications with me, of course. We're in the process of 17 collecting and going through that right now. He --
18 Mr. Hebert, like I said, is an individual.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MR. CRAIG: He has --

21 THE COURT: I'm going to leave that issue to you
22 all to work through. If there's a problem, file something
23 on an emergency basis. I'll take it up. But get this issue
24 straight before you start the examination. I don't want you
25 to get four hours into it and then -- because you think that

1 you're going to get something. Get it all together and
2 either come back and complain or say, "Okay. We've got
3 everything. We're going to go forward with the examination
4 at this point."

5 MR. MUHAMMAD: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Can you craft an order that reflects
7 that, pass it by Mr. Craig so I can get -- to me, I want
8 something written on this so it's very clear what I've 9 decided and what the Parties are instructed to do because 10 it's my guess I probably haven't heard the last of this.

11 MR. MUHAMMAD: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MR. CRAIG: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: If you'd pass it by Mr. Craig to 15 approve as to form only, all right?

16 MR. MUHAMMAD: Of course.

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hughes, did you have 18 something you wanted to add or you were just anticipating
19 getting up?

20 MR. HUGHES: Oh, I was channeling Mickey
21 Scheinfeld (phonetic), I guess, at times and so I'm trying 22 to restrain myself.

23 I just want to make sure that we're able to get
24 their documents that relate to items they receive from us
25 because part of their defense in this case is premised upon

1 an alleged failure of us --

2 THE COURT: To get documents.

3 MR. HUGHES: -- to provide them with information.

4 THE COURT: Got it.

5 MR. HUGHES: And it's telling that we would not be
6 able to get documents from them from their files as received
7 by us or independently.

8 THE COURT: I get it. And I'm going to let you --
9 and I want to make sure I was clear. I'm going to let you
10 all work through that issue and better refine it to the 11 extent that a dispute still exists because I'm not sure what 12 to do with what I've got right now.

13 MR. HUGHES: Okay.

14 THE COURT: If you aren't satisfied that you've 15 gotten whatever it is you want that was -- don't start the 16 examination. Come back and let's get this resolved so that 17 Mr. Hebert only has to sit through one examination, the 18 lawyers only have to prepare once and we don't duplicate any 19 time and effort. Then I'll deal with -- if I think that 20 either side is being inappropriate, then I'll deal with it
21 in the context of an emergency motion from either side.

22 MR. HUGHES: We'll plan on a call with opposing 23 Counsel tomorrow if their schedules permit --

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. HUGHES: -- and we can try to flesh through

1 whatever the wording is of an order or if there's a
2 remaining dispute.

3 THE COURT: All right. Terrific. All right.

4 MR. CRAIG: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir. All right.

6 Do you want to take the two Adversaries together,
7 Mr. Hughes?

8 MR. HUGHES: Yes, sir, that does make sense. And 9 I think Mr. Reasoner is lead trial Counsel in the removed 10 case. I'm lead Counsel, I suppose, in the objection to 11 claim case. I don't want to dominate the discussion.

12 THE COURT: No, let me just -- let me start this.
13 I read the Motion and it seems like that everybody agrees
14 that this ought to be reshuffled although I'm not sure
15 everyone agrees to what degree. In looking through 16 everything, it seems to me that we have two Adversaries.

17 Why, through an appropriate order, could we not 18 simply transfer claims back and forth so that we end up with 19 one of the pending Adversaries -- and I'm not sure I care
20 which one it is -- we end up with -- is it Belanger or 21 Belanger?

22 MR. HUGHES: Belanger.

23 THE COURT: Belanger, excuse me. That we end up
24 with the Belanger claims in one Adversary and then
25 everything else over in the other Adversary.

1 MR. HUGHES: That makes sense. Perhaps we can
2 just keep the Belanger claims in the 46 Adversary -- the
3 claim objection proceeding and then move everything else
4 into the 44, which is the removed action whereby --

5 THE COURT: Fine by me.

6 Does anybody have an objection to that approach?
7 Obviously, you can't comment on an order because we don't 8 have one, but does anyone have an objection to proceeding in 9 that manner?

10 MR. MCALPINE: No, Your Honor. In principle, that 11 makes sense to me.

12 THE COURT: All right. Let me -- so can we --
13 think we can get an order on that? This is going to require 14 a number of eyes.

15 Do you think we can get that done this week?

16 MR. HUGHES: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. HUGHES: I think everybody's attention is on 19 it.

20 THE COURT: All right. So let's circulate an 21 order. And let me ask you:

22 Once we reshuffle all of those claims, are we 23 going to need pleading amendments that need to be made?

24 MR. HUGHES: I believe so, particularly as to the 25 Belanger Parties, and I've spoken to Counsel about that.

1 And then because we're combining an Amended Complaint filed
2 by the "Tallerine Parties," for shorthand, with, you know,
3 the objection to counterclaim, it probably makes sense to 4 try to fold all of our claims against them and their claims
5 against us into one pleading that encapsulates all causes of 6 action.

7 THE COURT: I would really like to do that because
8 whether it stays in front of me or whether it goes upstairs
9 or back to State Court, whoever -- if I keep it, I'd like to 10 be able to sort it out fairly quickly. And if I send it to 11 another Judge, I'd like for that Judge, whoever he or she 12 might be, to be able to say, "Okay. Here's what I've got 13 before me," as opposed to trying to go back and look at what 14 I did and maybe not having the access to a transcript or 15 something like that and trying to sort it out listening to a
16 bunch of different lawyers six months from now.

17 If everybody's agreeable to doing that, what do we 18 think our timetable is? What I'd like to be able to do is 19 I'd like to get whatever affirmative pleading we're going to 20 proceed on, whatever defensive pleading, the counterclaims
21 we're going to have, get those on file, have a Rule 26
22 conference.

23 If there's still Rule 12 motions that need to be 24 heard, if you all want a hearing, I want to set those for 25 hearing. That is, I want to get this moving forward if we

1 can and it just seems to me that if we can get good
2 pleadings that set forth all the claims and the defensive
3 pleadings set forth all the counterclaims and affirmative
4 defenses and whatever else is going to be filed, at that
5 point, I then have something that we can actually move
6 forward on.

7 MR. HUGHES: We agree, Your Honor. I think
8 talking somewhat out loud, I think on the Debtors' side, all
9 of the affirmative claims that are not already encapsulated
10 in the Amended Complaint filed by Gibbs and Bruns with us --

11 THE COURT: Right.

12 MR. HUGHES: -- as of Counsel, essentially means
13 moving over the counterclaim causes of action into that. So
14 I don't think that's a very complicated fix and we could 15 probably do that within a week.

16 MS. KISSEL: Yeah.

17 THE COURT: Do you want to check? Mr. Reasoner's
18 frowning so I want to make sure --

19 (Laughter.)

20 MR. REASONER: It's always funny but nodding
21 either, Your Honor. A week would be fine.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

23 MR. HUGHES: Ms. Kissel actually was saying,
24 "Yes," so I figured we were probably safe for that.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. HUGHES: And then for Mr. Belanger, I'll need
2 to kind of -- Mr. McAlpine on how much time he needs.

3 MR. MCALPINE: Generally, a lot of this has 4 already done so as far as whether or not we would be --

5 THE COURT: Mr. McAlpine, you need to stand when 6 you talk to me.

7 MR. MCALPINE: Oh, excuse me.

8 THE COURT: That's okay. So I know you don't know
9 exactly what you're going to get, but let me -- if I gave
10 you -- if I gave -- without trying to figure out whose way
11 -- or if I gave the Plaintiffs two weeks to file an amended
12 pleading and then I give you two weeks or I give the 13 Defendants two weeks to file an amended pleading, do you
14 think that's sufficient? Again, you haven't seen what's 15 coming although you probably have a good idea.

16 MR. MCALPINE: I suspect that two weeks is ample
17 time for us so, yes.

18 THE COURT: All right. So we could probably come
19 back and have a meaningful scheduling conference sometime
20 the first week or so of August; would that make sense?

21 MR. MCALPINE: That makes sense.

22 THE COURT: All right. And does it make sense to 23 wait and see what actually gets filed before we decide
24 whether or not we want to proceed forward on the Rule 12
25 that you currently have on file or an amended Rule 12 once

1 you see what's actually filed?

2 MR. MCALPINE: I actually do think that that makes 3 sense.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. MCALPINE: I suspect that there may be some 6 changes so.

7 THE COURT: Yeah, just my guess is probably so
8 because just -- it will evolve is my guess.

9 MR. MCALPINE: Uh-huh.

10 THE COURT: All right. Are there any other --
11 anyone on the telephone have any comments they want to make?

12 MR. FRYAR: This is Eric Fryar. I just to say
13 that for us to respond two weeks after we get the new 14 pleadings against our clients I think is more than fair.

15 THE COURT: All right. Terrific. Thank you.

16 All right. So, Mr. Hughes, today's the 7th, so
17 the 21st?

18 MR. HUGHES: The 21st is fine for us to file
19 amended pleadings setting forth our claims broken down as to 20 Mr. Belanger and 46 and against the other Parties in 44.

21 THE COURT: All right. And so that would then --
22 responsive pleadings, whatever they might be, would be 23 August the 4th?

24 MR. HUGHES: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: Then you want to have a Scheduling

1 Conference on the 18th; is that too quick or does that work
2 for everybody?

3 MR. HUGHES: That is the date of our Confirmation
4 Hearing. I don't know -- right now, we're looking at less
5 than --

6 THE COURT: Well, that's a good point.

7 MR. HUGHES: -- a consensual process so that might 8 be a crowded day.

9 THE COURT: No, that makes perfect sense.

10 Do you want to do on the 25th?

11 MR. HUGHES: That'd be fine for us.

12 THE COURT: Is that okay with everybody?

13 MR. MCALPINE: Yes, Your Honor.

14 MR. REASONER: Yes, Your Honor.

15 MR. HIGGINS: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 MR. FRYAR: This is Eric Fryar. I've got a trial
18 that's starting on the 25th and I think I probably ought to 19 be there.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Fryar, do you think that 21 will take all week?

22 MR. FRYAR: Yes, I think it will take all of that 23 week. I think we'll be done in a week.

24 THE COURT: Any reason -- and I know this wouldn't 25 be on your normal hearing day. Any reason we couldn't do it

1 say 11:30 on the 21st?

2 MR. FRYAR: One moment, Your Honor. That'd be
3 perfect.

4 THE COURT: All right. Anybody else? Anybody got 5 a scheduling problem with the 21st, at 11:30?

6 (No verbal response.)

7 THE COURT: All right. Now, let me make this
8 suggestion, too. When we get amended pleadings, I don't 9 need you all to spend a lot of time putting together a
10 Rule 26 report. I would rather for you all to spend the 11 time and actually sort of identify the issues. I mean,
12 obviously, you want to talk about how long you need for 13 discovery and you can talk about some deadlines.

14 If there's going to be a round of Rule 12 motions,
15 be candid with one another and let's -- if there's going to 16 be limited discovery or briefing issues, have that 17 discussion so when we reconvene, we can actually have a
18 meaningful calendaring discussion so we can get some dates
19 down and we can start the process.

20 Does that work for everybody?

21 MR. MCALPINE: Yes.

22 MR. HUGHES: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Reasoner?

24 MR. REASONER: Yes, Your Honor. I didn't mean to 25 interrupt the Court.

1 THE COURT: No, it's okay.

2 MR. REASONER: Just to make sure that -- and maybe
3 this is apparent to others, but to make sure that we deliver
4 the pleading that you are looking for, from the standpoint
5 of the Adversary Proceeding, you know, we've recently
6 amended so those claims are -- I'm not sure we'll look at 7 them again, but they're current.

8 In the other Adversary, the objection, we are 9 arguably defendants there and that we are objecting to 10 Mr. Tallerine and others' claims.

11 THE COURT: Right.

12 MR. REASONER: So I'm wondering if you want those 13 -- you know, if the bases for those objections are, in part,
14 the same as our affirmative claims.

15 THE COURT: Sure. What --

16 MR. REASONER: But we wouldn't -- I'm just trying 17 to figure out what should go in our initial pleading and 18 what should be in the responsive category.

19 THE COURT: Sure. Let me tell you what I had 20 inside my head when I said that because I don't know what 21 strategy you're trying implement or I haven't sat down and 22 tried to figure it out and maybe I couldn't even if I tried.
23 The point was is that to the extent that the Debtor is the 24 Plaintiff, then whatever it is you're going to live with --
25 it may be you make no changes.

1 It may very well be you send an email to Counsel
2 and say, "We're going to live with this Amended Complaint
3 and that's all we intend to assert." Now, my guess is that
4 probably isn't true just based on the shifting that I think
5 is going to occur. But whatever it is -- and with respect
6 to the objection is -- seems to me -- I mean, I get what
7 you're saying, but having filed the objection, essentially
8 you're still the Plaintiff in my mind.

9 So whatever pleading it is that you're going to 10 proceed on -- and you can -- I know you probably know as 11 well, but you get with Mr. Hughes and you can figure out do
12 I need an Adversary complaint because I'm going to seek this 13 type of refer which is beyond the scope of a contest matter,
14 that sort of thing. Whatever it is that you're going to do,
15 is -- that's the pleading I want to see.

16 And so, I mean, I wouldn't expect you to assert
17 affirmative defenses until you see what the responsive
18 pleading is. But all I'm trying to do is: by rearranging
19 all this, essentially I'm trying to start over and get 20 everybody into place where we have an easier read,
21 affirmative pleading requesting for relief setting forth
22 these claims and these causes of action. I get a responsive
23 pleading that answers and asserts counterclaims. I'm just 24 trying to actually get this back to the point where it looks
25 like a lawsuit is what I'm really trying to do, if that

1 makes sense.

2 MR. REASONER: That clarifies it. Thank you,
3 Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Sure. Yes, sir?

5 MR. MCALPINE: I'd like to ask, Your Honor. We
6 haven't filed an Amended Complaint in this Adversary
7 Proceeding yet on the basis that we're seeking remand
8 pursuant to 1452. We had filed that earlier in June and I
9 was just wondering what sort of guidance you might have as 10 far as how to approach the next sort of upcoming deadline as 11 far as do we file an Amended Complaint subject to our 12 request for remand --

13 THE COURT: Fair enough. Let me --

14 MR. MCALPINE: -- something like that?

15 THE COURT: I'm not going to try to limit you at 16 all because I don't want to inadvertently deprive you of any 17 right that you might have.

18 What I would ask you to do is: once you see the 19 amended pleading, if you still think there's a basis for it
20 to be remanded, it seems to me you can do two things: you
21 can -- if nothing's new, then you can file something that 22 says that you want to be heard on your remand before you
23 file an affirmative pleading, and I'll take that as your 24 affirmative pleading in compliance with my Order.

25 If what you want to do because it may help you is

1 you want to file a responsive pleading subject to your
2 Motion to Remand, you're not going to waive anything. I
3 want to get this so that I fully understand the issues and
4 I've got a self-encapsulated lawsuit, if you will, that I
5 can do something with.

6 Right now, if I were to try to do something with
7 these, I quite honestly don't know how I would parse it up.
8 If I decided that something ought to be remanded, there's 9 something that ought to be upstairs, I don't know what I
10 would do, and so I'm trying to figure that out.

11 So I'm really -- I'm asking you to help me get 12 this in a position where I can deal with it as a real
13 lawsuit. Then I can rule on motions to remand, I can rule
14 on Rule 12 motions, I can -- if there's a motion to withdraw
15 the reference, I can deal with that. Just get me to the 16 point where I have something that I can actually bring some 17 finality to, whatever it is. That's what I'm after.

18 MR. HUGHES: May I try to help on that point --

19 THE COURT: Sure.

20 MR. HUGHES: -- too, Your Honor?

21 THE COURT: Sure.

22 MR. HUGHES: I know that we've had a number of 23 discussions so I don't want to touch on matters that might 24 be covered by 408, but in a nutshell, I'll stipulate on 25 behalf of the Debtors that their filing of an Amended

1 Complaint will not impair any pending motion for remand
2 arguments they have in terms of any objections they have to
3 jurisdiction or otherwise. But we think it's important to 4 see in black and white in a complaint what all of their 5 claims are and would like to see that before we argue the 6 remand, and I think that'd be appropriate.

7 THE COURT: Well, because what you're going to get
8 -- the reason I'm trying to do this -- and this is not a big 9 secret -- yeah, I know how he thinks. I've dealt with him
10 for way too long. If you go "I want a hearing on my Motion
11 to Remand," and you don't put out your claims, then we're 12 going to go through a round of discovery about what your 13 claims are.

14 And I was really trying to cut that off by -- if
15 -- you've got that stipulation and you've got me telling you
16 that you're not going to hurt your Motion to Remand or 17 you're not going to waive anything, then if you go ahead and 18 put it out there, you're going to avoid subjecting your 19 clients to a round of free-look discovery, if you will. And 20 maybe I'm -- maybe he was trying to bait you into that, I
21 don't know. But if you get on the table, then we've got 22 something that we can argue about and it's going to minimize 23 the exposure that at least your clients have initially to 24 discovery.

25 Does that makes sense?

1 MR. MCALPINE: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Sure. All right.

3 Mr. Hughes, anything else?

4 MR. HUGHES: No, sir, I think that's it.

5 THE COURT: All right. So we think that we can
6 craft two orders and we can get one of them done pretty
7 quick, and the other one by the end of the week?

8 MR. HUGHES: Yes, on Mr. Belanger's, I think we 9 can do that pretty quick.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. HUGHES: And then on all the other Parties
12 that need to look at the other form of order by the end of 13 the week.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. HUGHES: Assuming all Parties, including those 16 on the phone, are -- don't have a scheduling problem seeing 17 a form of order tomorrow or the next day.

18 THE COURT: Yeah, everybody's back from the 4th
19 and ready to work.

20 MR. HUGHES: Okay.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 MR. HUGHES: Great.

23 THE COURT: Anything else we need to talk about 24 today?

25 (No verbal response.)

1 THE COURT: Anybody on the telephone got any
2 comments or arguments that they want to make?

3 (No verbal response.)

4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, folks. You're 5 all excused.

6 (The Parties thank the Court.)
